

The 53rd Season of CHEVY CHASE CONCERTS

2023-2024

Sundays at 4:00*

Patagonia Winds

October 15

Come enjoy this professional wind quintet known to D.C., Maryland and Virginia audiences since 2010 for dynamic programming that the whole family can enjoy. <https://patagoniawinds.org/>

The Maryland State Boy Choir

November 12

Conducted by Stephen Holmes and founded in 1987 with just 14 boys, the mission of The Maryland State Boychoir has remained clear: to foster the boychoir tradition by offering talented boys opportunities to sing and build self-esteem, self-discipline and character. Thirty years later, the Boychoir still embraces that goal. Child-friendly!

Christmas Concert

December 10

The annual concert will feature the Chancel Choir and Handbell Choir of Chevy Chase Presbyterian Church singing and ringing, as well as carols for all to sing. Child-friendly! A festive holiday reception will follow.

Washington Chamber Orchestra

January 21

Since 2014 WCO has been dedicated to the mission of making classical music easily accessible to people of all ages and cultures without compromising quality. Acclaimed violinist, Jun Kim, conducts a varied program.

The Gerdan Ensemble – A Ukrainian folk ensemble

February 25

The classically trained members of the Gerdan Ensemble – voice, violin, flutes and piano – present a program of traditional songs and folk melodies of Eastern Europe. Come enjoy original arrangements paired with contemporary classical compositions. Child-friendly!

47th Annual Bach Marathon (2:00 PM -7:00 PM)*

March 17

A beloved Washington tradition presenting ten outstanding organists in half-hour programs on our magnificent 3-manual, 50-rank, 2,500-pipe Rieger tracker organ. “Come when you can; leave when you must.” This year’s program features chorales in the “Orgelbüchlein”.

Apollo Orchestra

April 21

In a concert made possible through the generosity of the Downing Family Foundation, The Apollo Orchestra performs with David Chan, Concertmaster of the MET Opera Orchestra conducting.
